

My Loving Wife . . .

*With you is where I want to be,
Together for all the world to see.
Holding hands as we walk down the street,
Spreading cheer to all the people we meet.
When we're together, we will always be one,
And as for sadness, there will be none.
We'll be drowned in happiness all of our life,
I'm very happy that you're my wife.*