

I Love You, Mom

It would be nice if life didn't get quite so busy and I could see you as often as I'd like . . .

But in a way, Mom, you are with me every single day . . .

*You're in my thoughts and in my heart.
I hear the steady reassurance of your voice and feel the confidence that grew out of your encouragement and love.
And part of me is always with you, Mom . . .
thinking of you, loving you,
and caring about you so much.*
