

All I Want Is You

*I'll tell it rather simply;
I'll say it plain and true-
A single thing is all I want
And all I want is you.*

*There are no other riches,
No treasures or possessions
That ever could compare with you,
My fondest of obsessions.*

*You are the very air I breathe,
The ration that sustains me.
You're all my thoughts tied up as one,
The laugh that entertains me.*

*You're all that life need ever give,
The maximum that's due.
If I could ask for anything,
I'd only ask for you.*
