

Mom & Dad . . .

*You've helped me through good times and bad times, comforted me and given me support when I needed it, and always encouraged me to be the best person I could possibly be, and though there have been times when we haven't understood each other very well...
I'm so glad that we now share the warm and special relationship we do, because I love you both so very much.*