

My New Parents

You have given me a precious gift with whom I share my life.

You raised in love the little girl that now I call my wife.

You are her loving parents, and I'm the lucky man, that your little girl has chosen to always hold her hand.

And now I want to thank you both for all your loving care, and being the kind of parents the both of us can share.
